HIGHLIGHTS, UPDATES, AND NEXT STEPS

- Denise Banker, JCPH's CH Director, shared they are working to get counseling back in the schools because the current MCS partnership isn't going forward. They are exploring what insurances etc. would be required for MCS's counselors to contract directly with JCPH to provide those services. Would like to get to 4 days per school district per week.
- Holly Gumm, Coordinator of the Empowered Teens Coalition (ETC), noted the Quilcene Resource Fair will be held at the Quilcene High School's Gym Multipurpose room, Friday, May 20th from 4:30-6:30pm. This event will bring folks providing care to the community in contact with the public to share resources that are available.
- Anya Callahan noted she will be at the Quilcene Resource Fair to do education.
- Gabbie Caudill presented an overview of the Mobile Harm Reduction program she is working to set up.
